

RDM Records Discography

RDM Records was a Florida-based label founded by Ronald D. Mainor. Joey Harris was a vocalist/guitarist and songwriter who at one time had played guitar for John Stewart's band, and would later join the Beat Farmers. The Ravyns were a Baltimore-based rock band whose song "Raised on the Radio" was included in 1982 on the Fast Times at Ridgemont High soundtrack (the version on the LP below is a remake).

RDM/MCA 39000 series

RDM/MCA 39006 - Joey Harris and the Speedsters - Joey Harris & The Speedsters [1983] I Believe In Mary/You Never Call/Sally/Made For Each Other/Stay Away//Two People Talking/Don't Say Love/Nobody's Girl/Do You Want To/Too Young

RDM/MCA 39015 - The Ravyns - Ravyns [1984] Don't Leave Me This Way/Rhythm Of My Heart/Cool Boy/Lose You/Raised On The Radio//Ready For Romance/No Regular Woman/Second Hand/Physical Attraction/Wraparound