

DCP (Don Costa Productions) International Label/Veep Label Discography

Don Costa started arranging material for Steve Lawrence and Edyie Gorme and went with them to the new record label ABC-Paramount in 1958. At ABC, Costa became head of A&R as well as chief arranger and producer. He produced hits for Lloyd Price, George Hamilton IV and Paul Anka. DCP International was started by Don Costa after leaving ABC Paramount in 1964. United Artists purchased the label in 1966 and the name was changed to Veep.
